Profile

Rembrandt van Rijn

1606-1669 Dutch painter

Rembrandt van Rijn was born in 1606 in Republiek der Zeven Verenigde Nederlanden.

He entered a Latin school in 1613 and entered Leiden University in 1620 at the age of 14. In the same year, he became a disciple of Jacob Isaacsz. Van Swanenburg with the aim of becoming a painter. At the age of 18 in 1624, he became a disciple of Pieter Lastman in Amsterdam, who was said to be the best painter of the time.

After returning from Amsterdam, he made an atelier and started making paintings.
In 1632, he was asked to do a group portrait of an anatomy lecture by Dr. Nicolaes Tulp. This painting was highly acclaimed and became an early masterpiece.

He gained wealth and fame, but his children died one after another, his mother died the same year, and his wife died in 1642 at the age of 29.
Around this time, Rembrandt's life didn't go well, he was asked less for work, and in his later years he lost his wealth and died in 1669.
